1974 METEOR IS DEDICATED TO MR. CRANSTON HYSONG

The Annual Staff wishes to dedicate this book to Mr. Cranston Hysong, in appreciation for all the time and work he has given to Winslow High School.

Mr. Hysong has been teaching Biology at W.H.S. since 1967. He is a J. V. football coach and is also head track coach, a position he has held ever since the 1970 track season. His teams have won two State Championships in Track for the past two years.

As a sponsor of the junior class, he has given his time to the class activities. The staff wishes to recognize him for this as well as his other accomplishments.

ORCHESTRA

Fall 1973 saw the Winslow High School string section of the symphony nearly double in size with an enrollment of 27 and a total membership in the symphony of 55. This rapidly growing orchestra opened its season with a major formal concert given in October--the earliest symphony performance in a school year.

The orchestra also performed for the Music Department Cakewalk, the All-School Christmas program, and the Chamber Orchestra accompanied the Community Chorus production, "How Far Is It To Bethlehem?"

The second semester included participation in the Regional Solo and Ensemble festival in Prescott on January 19, a second formal concert on February 14, hosting the Eastern New Mexico University Symphony Orchestra in concert on February 18, and attendance at the Northeastern Arizona Music Educators' Festival held in Joseph City on March 22.

In early April a two-day tour was culminated by attendance at the University of Arizona Music Festival. A musical titled "Once Upon A Mattress" was presented in conjunction with the drama and choral departments, and a final spring honors concert was held in late May. The 1973-74 Orchestra proved itself equal to the challenge of performances of such works as the Beethoven Symphony No. 1, "Farandole" by Bizet, and "The Hero's Gate of Kiev" by Moussourgsky. The conductor is Mr. Kim Thompson.

MADRIGAL AND CONCERT CHOIRS

The W. H. S. Chorus consists of two groups, a select chorus called Concert Choir, and Madrigal Choir, which consists of 12 singers and various soloists.

Among the activities participated in during 1973-74 were the Chorus Variety Show, at which Holbrook's chorus was the invited guest, an all-school Christmas program (held in conjunction with the junior high and grade schools), Solo and Ensemble Festivals for district and state, and a spring musical, "Once Upon A Mattress," which was presented in conjunction with the speech and drama departments and orchestra on May 9 and 10.

During 1973-74 Concert Choir went to Grand Canyon and sang concerts at Flagstaff, Grand Canyon, and Ash Fork. This tour was held on April 25 and 26.

Among selections performed were "Morning is Broken," "Elijah Rock," and "They Call the Wind Maria."

Students from Winslow who attended regional competition in Chorus were Arthur Rubi, Ross Frame, Mary Cahill, Mark Pfieffer, Buddy West, Carolyn Duggins, and Ken Conatser. All-State qualifiers were Cahill, West, and Conatser. Mr. William Arthur was director.

BAND

Stephanie Ceballos

JoAnne Campbell

Janet Heflin

Winslow High School Band had another successful season under the direction of Mr. Paul Summersgill. The band carried on its traditional activities: the sale of personalized band calendars, marching in the Homecoming, Christmas, and other parades, and interscholastic competitions for high ratings at Prescott and Mesa where All-State was held.

At semester, the band was split into two sections: Symphonic and Concert. This was because there were too many students in the original sections.

Band officers for the 1973-74 year were Mary K. Coughlin, president, Elaine Douthitt, vice-president, Angela Stotts, secretary, Annette Beaty, treasurer, and Bobby Estudillo was Student Council representative.

The drum major for the 1973-74 season was Senior Marcus Warren, and the majorettes were JoAnne Campbell, Janet Heflin, and Stephanie Ceballos.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Kenneth

Mari

Mary K.
Coughlin

Student Council is not a club with open membership; it is an organization comprised of Student Body executives, class representatives, and representatives from each club in school.

During 1973-74 the organization sponsored a state TRAGYC program in Winslow, held a vehicle inspection clinic, and conducted Tot Town, a child-sized city designed to teach small children traffic safety rules. Mary Durkin, senior, was one student from WHS who represented us at the State Convention in Tuscon; she served as state secretary. Student Council also participated in a student exchange with nearby schools Flagstaff, Holbrook, and Show Low. Some students who participated in the exchanges were Steve De Angelis, Terry Rhoton, Carolyn Duggins, Mary K.

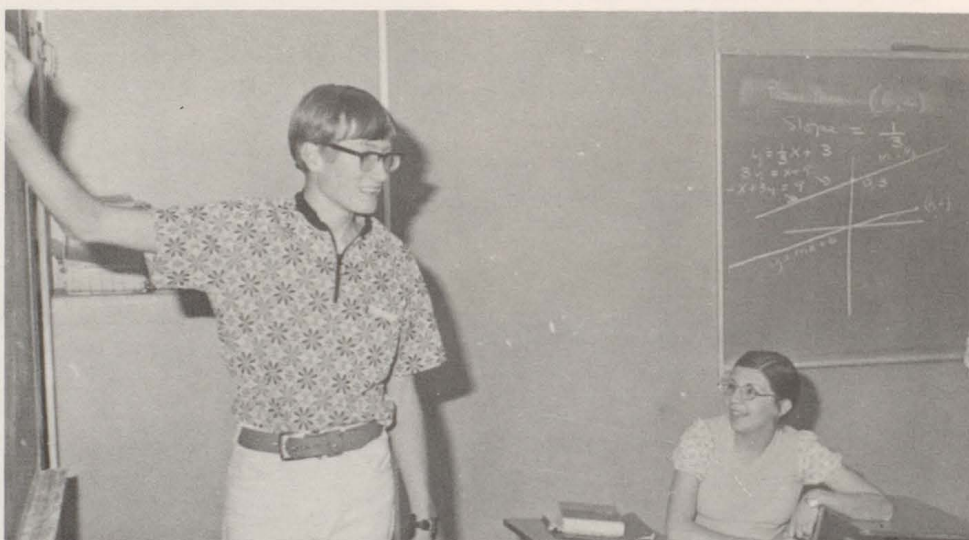

Coughlin, and Diane Nelson.

During April 1974 student body elections were held with a new twist: Student Council sponsor, Ms. Dixie Dougherty, required that the elections be held with all the formalities of a state or national election. This practice, ignored in past years, should revive interest in selecting Student Council executives.

The organization sponsored its annual activities--leading Freshman Orientation Week, planning a calendar of activities for the student body, holding dances, and stuffing the candy machines.

The major role of the WHS student government is to provide an effective link between the students and the administration of WHS.

SPEECH- DRAMA

Under the direction of Mr. Ron Harris, Speech and Drama participants made quite a name for themselves last year. Persistence, patience, and practice earned members of this group a first place at the Page speech tournament and a first place in the district competition at Lake Havasu City. Members entered such events as serious and humorous prose, debate, poetry, and dramatic interpretation. Eight students represented Winslow High School at the state speech finals in Tucson. They were Mary Cahill, Beverlee Stucker, Laura Fore, Marcus Warren, Becky Herlacher, Joe Hasten, Art Rubi, and Mike Penrod.

HONOR SOCIETY

WHS Honor Society had a busy year, and conducted several activities. The first major event was a formal Honor Society induction, which was held in November, 1973. The organization inducted 20 members--11 Seniors and 9 Juniors.

Honor Society is a service club, and its goal each year is to be of service at least once to the school, the community, and to charity. As its school service last year, the organization decorated the classroom doors and halls and set up a Christmas tree on the main floor of the building. As a community service, the group sold candy. Profits gained went into a fund set up to send this year's president-elect to the Estes Park convention in Colorado. Another fund was established for the purchase of gold tassels and a going-away party for graduating members.

The year's sponsor was Mrs. A. Meikle. Mrs. Stotts was Mrs. Meikle's substitute during her absence at mid year.

Officers were Dewey Jackson, president; Johnson Stacey, vice-president; Elaine Douthitt, secretary; Valerie Wilhoite, historian, and Susie Copsey, representative.

METEORETTES

The Meteorettes were expanded in 1973-74 to 13 members. Twelve of them performed at the football and basketball games and the 13th served as a substitute in case one of the regular girls was absent. They worked hard to promote WHS spirit.

Tryouts are held every spring and certain requirements are set that have to be passed for a girl to be eligible. One requirement is a girl must make her own routine on pom poms and a novelty.

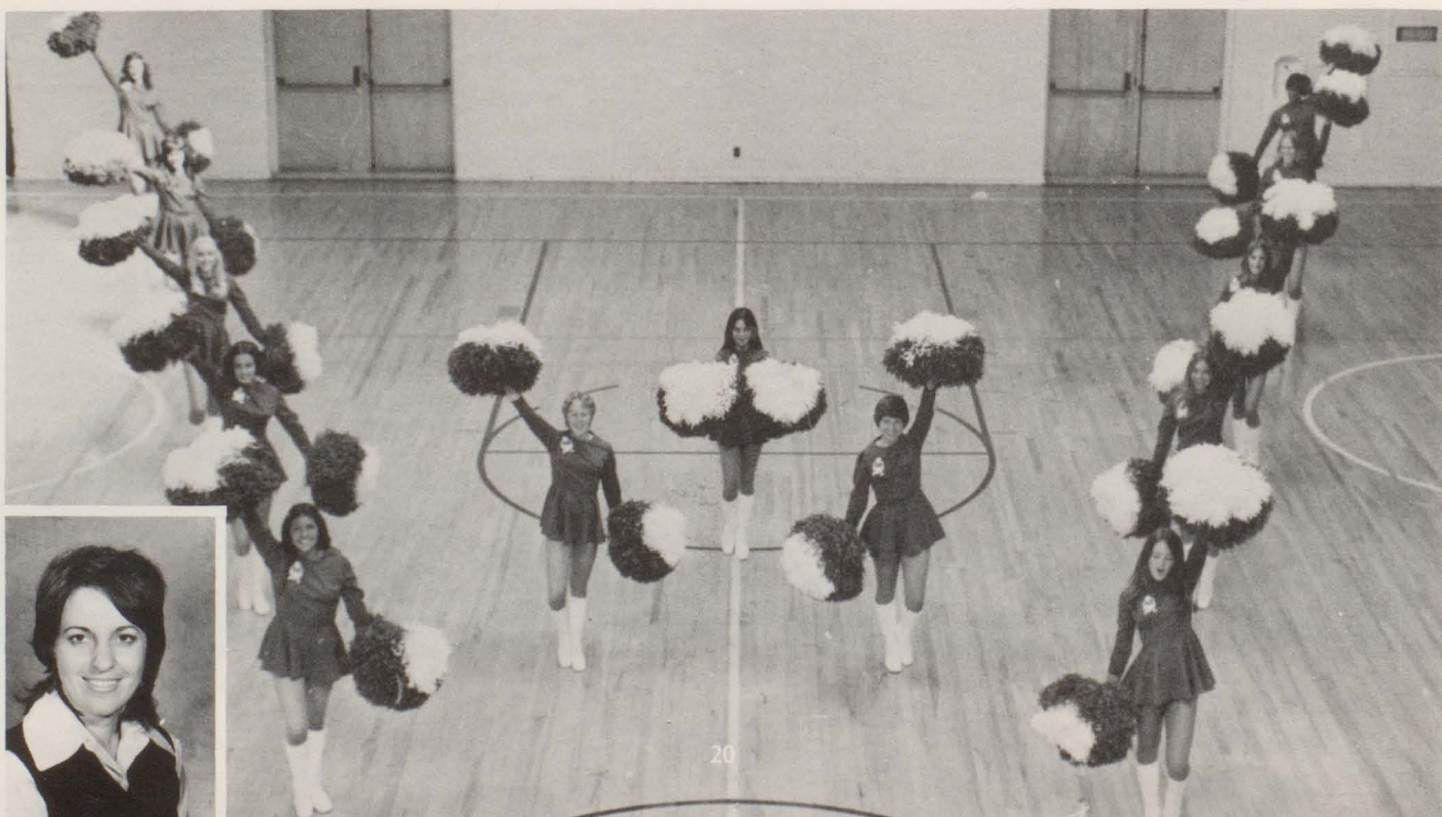

To promote more spirit then ever they had the band march around the school calling the students out for rallies. These short pep sessions proved to be a great success.

Last year's performers chose for a change, to perform to old time favorite songs rather than modern day music.

With the help of their sponsor, Miss Joan Lancaster, the girls contributed a great deal to the Bulldog spirit. They made up all of their routines and worked hard to put on a good performance for the student body.

Meteroettes form traditional "W".

MASCOTS

The mascots have promoted a great deal of school spirit during the past year. They are an extension of the cheerleading squad, an active branch of the Pep Squad, and strong supporters of WHS. Mascots perform their gymnastic acts during all the football and at the opening of the basketball games. Their performances are graceful and they show that they have a talent in performing their acts. Hardwork, fun, and tradition are all involved in putting on great performances for the audience.

Mascots for the year 1973-74 were Laura Chambers, Julie Scheid, Kathy Thompson, Kelly Remy, and Karen Benefield.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

STOMP EM', BEAT EM', YOU KNOW WE CAN DEFEAT EM'! WHO'S AFRAID OF THE BIG BAD BULLDOGS! THEY ARE, THEY ARE!

These and various cheers were heard during the athletic season and at various pep assemblies. Varsity Cheerleaders for the year 1973-74 were Mari Faucher, Debbie Owens, Susi Keller, Cindy Kidd, Debbie Hartz, and Judy Kalisz. Leading the spectators in cheering they displayed the spirit of WHS to encourage our teams on to victories.

Fun, Fun, hardwork, and tradition are what makes these girls the soul body for cheering. Selling small objects with sayings on them helped to raise money to buy treats for the athletes. Making up new cheers and getting people involved are their responsibilities.

JV CHEERLEADERS

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders are elected by the student body of WHS the same time the Varsity Cheerleaders are elected. They must have met the same qualification as the Varsity Cheerleaders. Only four girls are elected, however, and their duties are to lead cheers and raise spirit at the JV games. The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders work hard and hope that they will eventually become Varsity Cheerleaders. With their experience and know how they have a good chance of being elected in the following year to the Varsity Cheerleader position.

The four girls who served as JV Cheerleaders in 1973-74 were Kaye Hancock, Julie Chambers, Carolynn Duggins, and Darlene Hadnot. They had money making projects that helped to buy treats for the JV athletes.

Gracefulness can be formed in many shapes.

FROSH CHEERLEADERS

Freshmen Cheerleaders for the school year in 1973-74 were Diana Nelson, Kathy McLaws, Jeannie Sorenson, Debbie Bumgarner. They had a great part in promoting spirit at the basketball games, football games, and especially at the pep assemblies. They attended all games played by the WHS Bulldogs and helping the crowd to become more involved in the game was their way of showing the soul they had.

The Freshmen Cheerleaders are chosen in an election held by the junior high student body in the spring. They then serve throughout their freshman year in WHS. They present their cheers and a routine that they made up by themselves. From their routines, they exhibit some gymnastic feats such as tumbles, splits, and perhaps, cartwheels. Different cheerleaders are chosen every year.

WHS'S fine display of spirit at all athletic games was encouraged by the pep squad members who helped the guys to victory with their fine cheers and routines.

PEP SQUAD

Pep Squad had a great year. The club consisted of boys as well as girls in grades 9-12 who were interested in promoting school spirit. They were very proud to be backing up our athletes. Cheering at away games as well as at home brought victory to our teams. Throughout the year they helped put on assemblies, rallies, and pep chains before a game. Club members also made posters and gave the athletes treats to encourage them. Meetings were held on the first and last Wednesday of the month.

Officers for the club were Marcia Wilhoite, president; Teresa Guzman, vice-president; Priscilla Pavatea, secretary; Hazel Perry, treasurer; Susan Kaye, recorder, and Darlene Handnot, representative.

Displaying true spirit by both the pep squad members and the pep band

MATMAIDS

Matmaids had a very successful year. Inspite of the fuel shortage the members were able to attend many of the out of town matches including the State Wrestling matches at Tucson held the 15 and 16 of February.

To belong to MATMAIDS a student must have a 3.0 grade average and be chosen by the members. Membership is limited to ten girls.

Initiation is held in the middle part of November and the girls are taught how to score and learn the signals given by the officials.

They have worked hard to promote spirit for the wrestlers. The girls have made up their own cheers and worked hard to please the wrestlers as well as the student body.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll, an honorary organization for students interested in school publications, was reactivated in WHS after a five year absence.

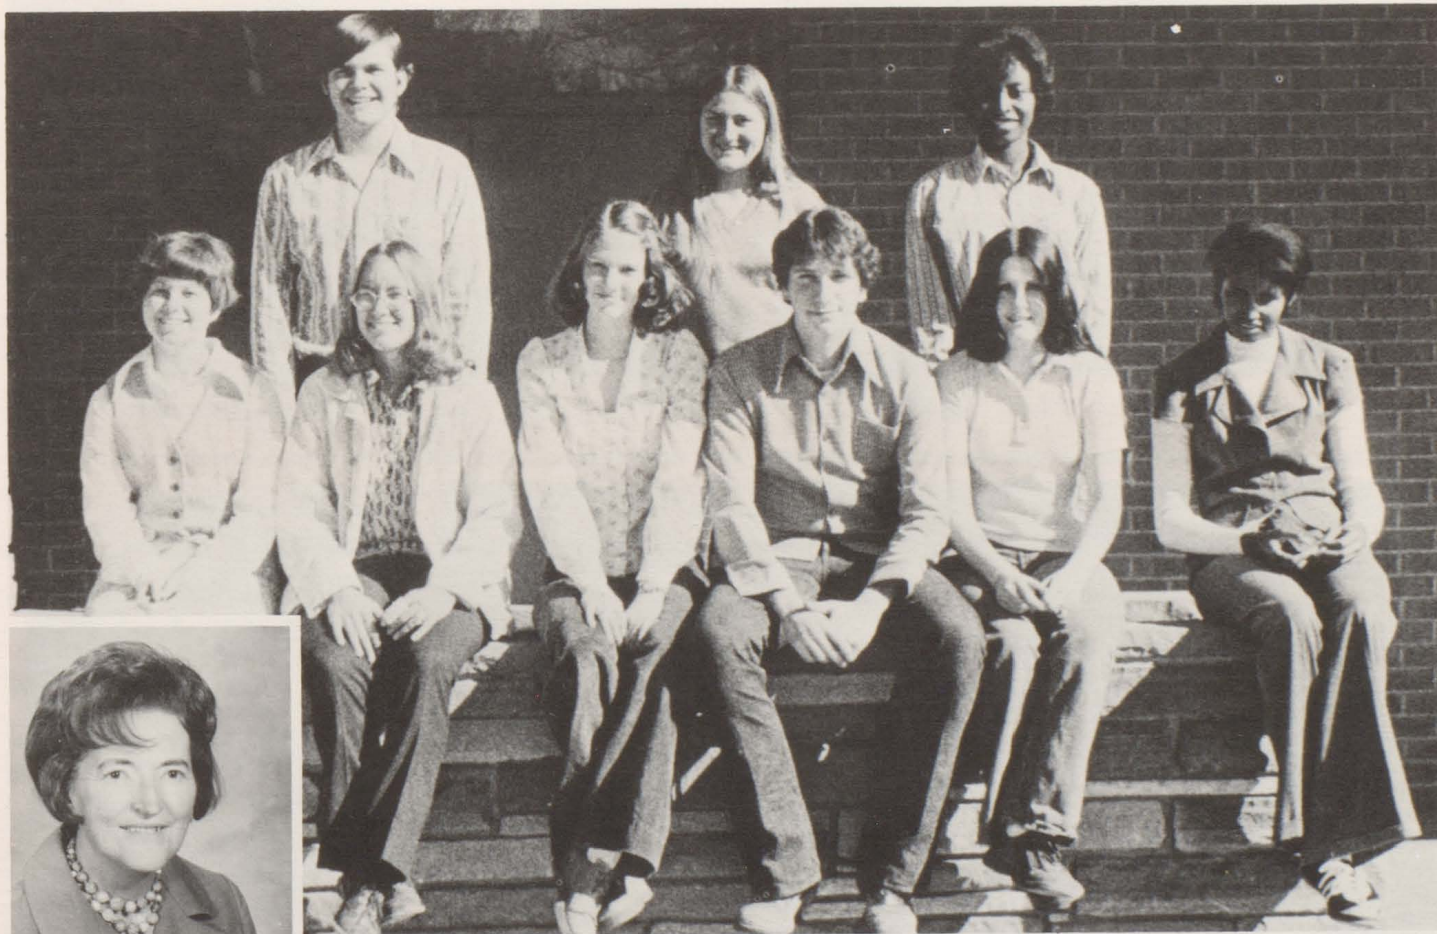

To qualify for membership, a student must be enrolled in some phase of school publications, rank in the upper third of his class, be a junior or senior, and be recommended by both the advisor and club secretary. Students eligible for this organization are drawn from the journalism, annual, and photography classes. This years' members consisted of 16 students. Mrs. Roberts, the sponsor, made it possible for the club to once more be active.

Initiation was held in the latter part of April. Members were presented at this time with the club pin making them officially a member of the Honorary Quill and Scroll. The acting officers for the year were Heather Morris, president; Shorty Higginson, vice-president; Valerie Wilhoite, secretary-treasurer.

Students who were honored by membership in this newly activated organization for 1973-74 in addition to the acting officers were Mike MacLean, Wayne Taylor, Myrna Pavatea, Cindy Breeze, Mike Breeze, Susi Keller, Gina Jenkins, Suzanne Cribbs, Marcia, Wilhoite, Julia Mallette, Steve De Angelis, Chuck Sema, and Beverlee Stucker.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

Freshman Orientation in the fall of '73 had more freshmen participation then ever. Freshmen enjoyed the different chores given to them by the upper classmen, but not as much as the upper classmen enjoyed them.

Initiating the freshmen into high school is taken on by the upper classmen during slave week at WHS.

The freshmen are sold to the upper classmen who bid the highest for the service of the student purchased. They are given various kinds of orders which they had to obey. If they did not follow an order given they were sentenced to face the punishments issued by the Kangaroo Court.

Events included during the initiation were the Peanut Race and Banana Race.

"Ya-ba-da-doo", guess who?

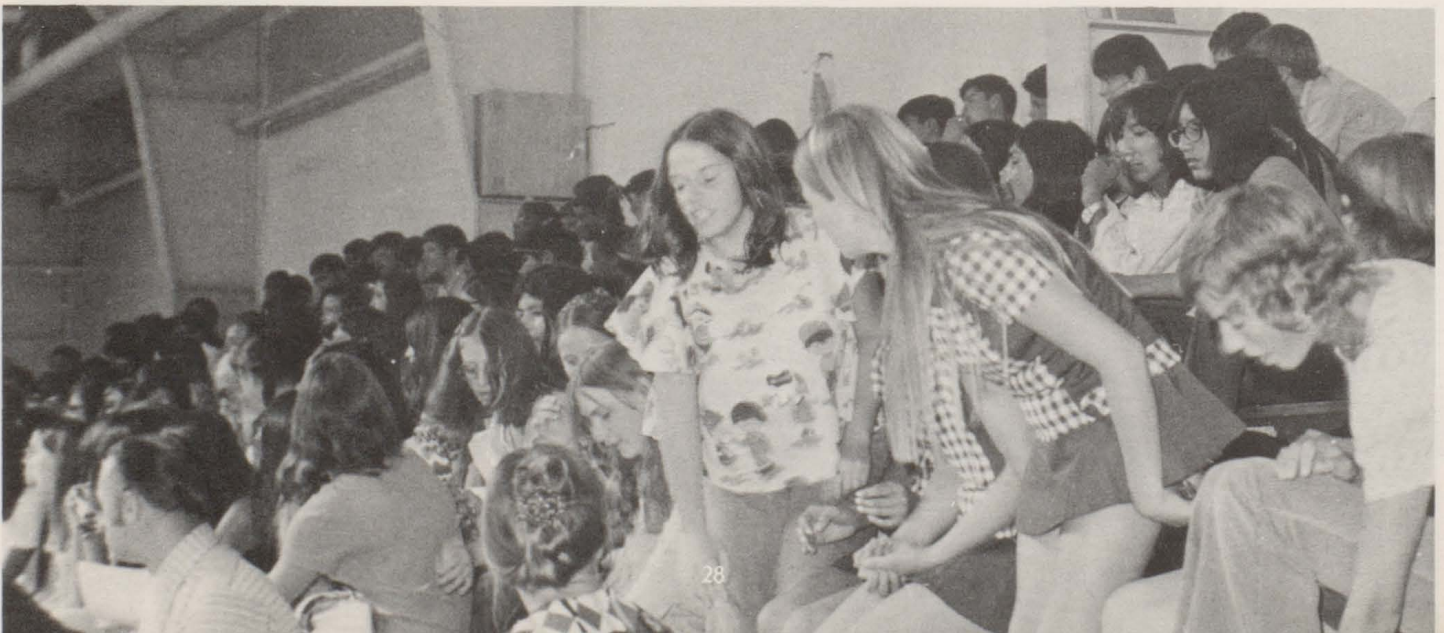

Banana races are lot of fun???????????

It takes great skill to master a peanut.

SENIOR PLAY

The senior class presented the play entitled FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON by David Rogers in December. The performances were given in the Winslow High School auditorium.

The part of Charlie, the retarded boy, who became a genius was played by Joe Hasten and Chuck Stratton. Joe portrayed his boyhood and Chuck the adult. His mother was played by Brenda Smith and his father was Mark Pfeiffer. He had a sister who was played by Susan Keller. The professors and doctors were played by Terry Rhoton, Buddy West, Marcus Warren, and Susi Aipperspach. Charlie's teacher was portrayed by Mary Durkin.

ANNUAL KING AND QUEEN

Laura Ann Chambers has been in Gymnastics during her four years in high school and her gymnastic ability has helped the gymnastic team win many victories. In 1974 she participated in the state gymnastic meet at Flagstaff and placed fourth.

During her years in WHS Laura was a member of Pep Squad and Chorus and also served as a mascot for three years. In her senior year she was a member of the varsity volleyball team. Because she has been very active and helpful, the staff of the Meteor proudly elected Laura Ann Chambers as Annual Queen 1974.

Mike Anthony Breeze has been in Spanish Club, MASO, and also Chess Club during his senior year. He has been a member of Honor Society during his senior year and was awarded Outstanding History Student during his junior year.

Mike has been very active in football and wrestling during his four years in high school. He has also participated in track as a sophomore. Mike was given the Vista Scholarship award and also was named as most valuable student in journalism at the Elks Youth Banquet. Because he was very active and had done a lot to win the Bulldogs honors and victories, the staff proudly elected Mike Breeze as Annual King 1974.

Laura Fore was student director of the play, and Leonard Padilla was stage manager. Other members of the cast were Danny Durkin, Judy Kalisz, Amber Dalton, Patti Cavin, JoAnn Campbell, Steve De Angelis, Sterling West, David Aragon, Sally Aragon, Bill Thomack, Diane Scheid, Cindy Darnell and Dana Pitts. Mr. Ron Harris was the faculty adviser.

Susan Keller, Polly Cain, and Valerie Wilhoite attended a week-long session in Tucson, and Dewey Jackson, Jerome Moore, Mike MacLean, and Gale Soehner attended a session held in Flagstaff from June 11 to June 17.

The Boy and Girl State programs are studies in the workings of American Government and the two-party system. A major portion of the workshops dealt with the way elections on the local, district, and state level are run, speechmaking, and political campaigning. WHS State participants won offices on all levels.

Guest speakers attended the programs to lecture on various phases of government. Among the speakers were Governor Jack Williams at Boys' State, and Secretary of State Wesley Bolin at Girls' State.

Winslow High School began the 1973 Homecoming festivities with an assembly held Thursday, October 25 at 7:30 p. m. Danny Smith and Susan Keller were chosen as Homecoming king and queen.

All the float entries were decorated around the Homecoming theme, "Yesterday Once More." Other entries were "S" Club, Spanish Club, MASO, Science Club, DECA, FTA, Pep Squad, Mascots, Meteorettes, Cheerleaders and Band.

The football game that night was played against Chaparral and was won by Winslow with a score of 46 to 0. After the game the Homecoming dance sponsored by Key Club was held from 9:30 to 12:00 with "Rust" providing the music.

Junior Prom

"The City of New Orleans" was the theme for the 1974 Junior prom, which was held on May 18, unusually late in the year.

Stephanie Ceballos, as prom chairman, and Mrs. Stotts, as the main sponsor, both did a fantastic job. The decorations were a royal purple and lavender. The tables were in separate little rooms made out of crepe paper.

The band was "Soul Unlimited" and Steve DeAngelis and Sandye Crawley led the grand march. The favors were champagne glasses, filled with punch.

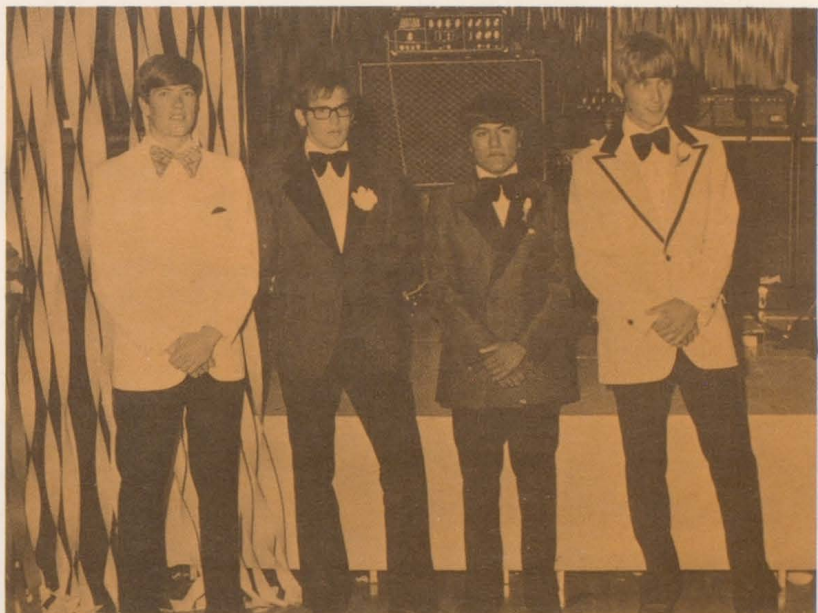

The candidates for prom king were Dewey Jackson, Terry Rhoton, Johnson Stacey, Gale Soehner and Wayne Taylor. For queen the candidates were Mari Faucher, Mary K. Coughlin, Janet Heflin, Linda Flores and Mary Durkin. The handsome king was Gale Soehner and the beautiful queen was Mary Durkin.

The Bulldog Varsity football team once again compiled a fine season with 7 wins, 2 losses and 1 tie.

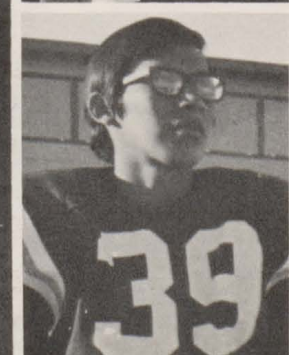

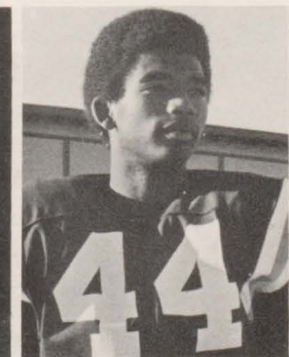

The Bulldogs opened their season with a tie when Holbrook scored in the last seconds to make the score 14 to 14. Winslow then went on to 4 straight wins over some very tough competition.

The 1973 team once again exhibited the never quit attitude of WHS as they continually came from behind to victory. Several mid-season injuries hurt the Bulldogs in their efforts to win the conference championship. Joe Zukowski, team quarterback, was injured during the Coolidge game, and Sigfried Ezell and Loren Yazzi were injured during the Coconino game. All three were out for the rest of the season. The Bulldogs were the only AA team to defeat Conconino, the AA State Champions.

The Junior Varsity football team once again had a very good season. The tough Bulldog's record consisted of 6 wins, 2 losses and a tie to an equally tough Gallup team. After their loss to the Holbrook and Flagstaff Junior Varsity team, they came up with 5 straight wins to top off their season.

Tommy Thompson and Steven Keams were unfortunate as they were unable to finish the football season due to injuries. Tommy was injured during the Coconino game and Steven was injured at the very start of the season and was unable to play throughout the entire season.

Many of the Junior Varsity members are moving up to Varsity level, but a fine season can still be expected from the mighty Bulldogs since many tough Freshmen football players are moving up to the Junior Varsity team.

The Basketball season of 1973-74 had many unique features for the Varsity team. The Bulldogs finished the season with 13 wins, 9 losses in regular plays and 7 wins, 5 losses in conference plays. The record for the conference plays placed Winslow third in "AA" North conference and Fifth in State "AA".

The season's team was highlighted by three outstanding athletes, Roy Atkins, Donald Perry, and Ronnie Van. Roy, a senior, was chosen for All-Conference and All-State. Donald, also a senior, was chosen for All-Conference, and Ronnie, a junior, was chosen All-Conference Honorable Mention.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity Basketball team enjoyed an outstanding season. Out of the total of 19 games played, the tough young Bulldogs won 15 games and lost only 4. The entire Junior Varsity squad helped to compile the season record since throughout the entire season an average of 12 boys played per game. Coach Petronovich feels this should give valuable playing experience to many of these players.

Towards the end of the season, 3 outstanding players, Kevin Thompson, Robert Oliva, John Davis, were moved up to Varsity level. Many of the players are also expected to move up to Varsity level next year.

Although the Freshman Basketball team won only 7 games and lost 12, Coach John Fink was proud of the way 21 young Bulldogs turned out for the entire season. Coach Fink feels that not only have they become better players but have also learned responsibility and the ability to stay with something once they have started.

Coach Fink listed Fred Campbell, John Land, Jamey Jones, and Mont Garner as the four top scorers and Len Surrell, Scott McCormick, Ronnie Colbath, and Darrell Bryson as the top rebounders. As the most improved he listed Mike Rubi, Craig Horner, Paul Smith, Mike Mead, Julian Betoney, Charlie Cook, Alvin Nelson, Mark Schultz, John Haydukovich, Lew Oso, Donnie Cunningham, Kevin Faler, and Jacob Yaiva.

JUNIOR VARSITY WRESTLING

Coach MacArthur

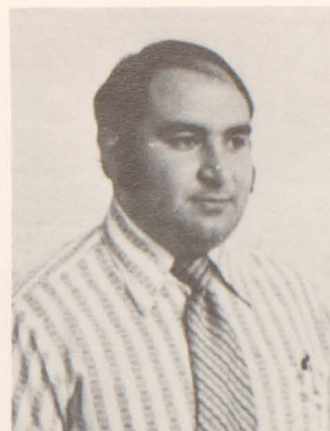

Coach Peters

Of all the areas and varieties of sports, no one has it as hard as the Junior Varsity teams. In wrestling for instance, the members worked hard to better themselves and to become members of the varsity team. Even though some of them didn't make it, they still used their teamwork to win their matches. This year's Junior Varsity Wrestling record was six wins, and two losses. Next year, most of these young men will probably be seen grappling on the Varsity squad.

Freshmen teams are probably the most ignored, yet the most important teams in the school, since they are the future varsity teams. The Freshmen Wrestlers turned out with a seasonal record of one win, one loss, and two ties, and are sure to better their record as the years go by.

The Bulldogs finished the season with a 7 win and 12 loss record. The team started off slowly due to a few costly injuries but came on strong to have a fairly successful season. ## JV BASEBALL

The Junior Varsity baseball team completed a very successful season finishing with a 9-8 record. The team was dominated with freshman players with only two upper classmen finishing the season. The Bulldog baseball program can look forward to some fine baseball in the near future.

A super team plagued by injuries finished up 9th in the state after dropping the division with 5th place.

Despite the unusual year, two records were broken. Manuel Ruiz vaulted 13' 2" for a new pole vault record and Dick Kolomitz broke the freshman shot put record with 42' 2½". Other outstanding performances for the year were: Roy Atkins, 50.5 in the 440; Wayne Taylor, 9:28.4 in the two-mile and 4:26.4 in the mile. Also freshman Wilmer Saufkie's 9:50.4 in the two-mile.

GIRLS TRACK

Although the girls track team was only in its first year, many women turned out to participate and ended the year with a fairly good season.

The coaching duties were taken over by Mrs. Diane Todd, the junior high school physical education teacher. This being the first year, the team had only three meets to participate in.

In the first meet of the season, the Bulldogs just barely outran Williams for their first victory. Soon after that meet, the Regional Track Meet was held in Flagstaff. Although the team only placed 6th, great potential and determination were exhibited by the women.

In the last meet of the season, the Seligman Invitational, the girls again put on a good show, but only managed to place third behind Salome and Wickenburg.

Next year's season promises to be exciting and longer, since all but one member of the team will be returning.

Winslow's Cross Country team, with the excellent coaching of David Conatser, continued to dominate the "AA" schools with a resounding victory at the state meet in Tucson in the fall. The Bulldogs were led by the fine running of senior Wayne Taylor who was a post season pick for the All-Southwest Cross Country team.

Team members who participated at the state meet were, Wayne Taylor (2nd Place), Rod Poneoma (4th Place), Selwyn Namoki (5th Place), Burke Pinto (6th Place), Alvin Thompson (10th Place), Albert Susunkewa (13th Place), and Fredrick Myron (22nd Place). There were 10 schools and 70 runners in the state meet.

Winslow is losing four of its 5 state champions next year but will still be in competition with several runners who will move up from the Junior Varsity squad. The Junior Varsity team last year soundly won five straight multiple meets to earn Winslow the first undefeated Cross Country season record earned by any squad.

VARSITY GOLF

The WHS Golf team returned from the state tournament in May with a sixth place ranking in a contest that included 11 teams. This was the final action for the members of the team and they ended their season with a 22-15 record.

The WHS team enjoyed setting a record of 208-227 at their home course to stomp Mingus in their first dual meet of the season, but the Bulldogs were unable to repeat this performance again during the rest of the season, and were defeated by Mingus in following contest.

In all-around, Mari Faucher won first scoring 58.6, Laura Chambers won fourth scoring 51.5, and Julie Scheid won fifth scoring 47. ## VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Coach Wernet

Hazel Perry, Manager

Girls' Volleyball had its third birthday, its third new coach, and its best season record during 1973-74. The team compiled a 9-win, 3-loss record, defeating teams from Kingman, Coconino, Camp Verde, Window Rock and Tuba City.

The team placed third at District, which was held in Phoenix, and did not attend the State competition. Juniors, Bev Stucker and Marcia Wilhoite, were voted onto the All-Conference and Honorable Mention teams respectively.

Notable activities for the year included a bake sale, the sale of stadium seat cushions and the purchase of new volleyball uniforms.

JV VOLLEYBALL

In 1973 the JV Volleyball team consisted of seven members. Two of these were seniors, three juniors, one sophomore and one freshman. The JV team played nine matches, five at home and four away, with seven other schools, Tolleson, Agua Fria, Coconino, Camp Verde, Window Rock, Tuba City and Kingman. Their season ended with a record of two wins and seven losses, and they are sure to better their record as the years go by.

The year began with the anxious freshmen full of fear and excitement. Many of the questions asked by the freshmen the first day were, where's the English room? Where's room G-1? Where's the Wilson building?

The month of September they had their annual orientation. Here they were taught the school song and school cheers. They were informed on the many clubs and activities they could participate in.

Then came the freshmen auction where the upper classmen bought freshmen for their slaves and the freshmen were told what to do.

During the year the freshman class performed many activities. The first, and thought of as the most important, was the W. The year's Homecoming W broke last year's record of approximately ten to fifteen minutes to over thirty minutes of good strong burning.

They sponsored a bake sale at the Jefferson Elementary School to earn money for their float, and were very successful. The Freshman's Homecoming float and Miss Merry Christmas candidate Marie Keyonnie, both came in third. The freshmen have worked very hard to achieve their goals and hope to achieve more and better goals in their years to come.

Diane Nelson
Representative

During the year of 1973-74, the Sophomore Class started out with a bang. They took first place on their Homecoming float, which was a football field with Snoopy characters. For Miss Merry Christmas, the class collected a total of $137.27 in canned goods for their candidate Juanita Robinson. They also put on a very successful spaghetti dinner. This took place November 6 at the Baptist Fellowship Hall, and there was a very good turn out.

1973 - 1974 JUNIOR CLASS

This year started off really great for the members of the class if '75. Their first accomplishment came with the homecoming float. The class used an old fashioned ice cream parlor suitably called "The Pop Shop," which placed second in the Homecoming Parade.

The next accomplishment was when Pauline Padilla won the title of Miss Merry Christmas. Other memorable events included recycling aluminum cans, selling cookbooks, working the concession stand at the basketball games and wrestling matches, putting on the Junior play, "I Remember Mama," engineering the Junior Prom and of course making the halls ring with excitement as they exhibited their class rings.

For the year of 1973-74 the following served as officers: President, Steve DeAngelis; vice-president, Teresa Guzman; secretary, Gina Jenkins; treasurer, Hazel Perry and representatives Danny Durkin, Judy Kalisz, and Annette Beaty.

Next year they will enter the halls with a new outlook because the members of the class of '75 will be the ruling class.

SENIORS HAVE A BUSY YEAR

The senior class of '74 had a total membership of 190 students. Class officers were President Terry Rhoton, Vice President Wayne Taylor, Secretary Heather Morris, Treasurer Suzie Hancock, and Representatives Laura Bertino, Mike McLean, and Elaine Douthitt.

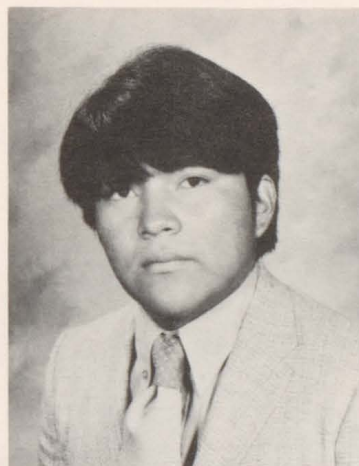

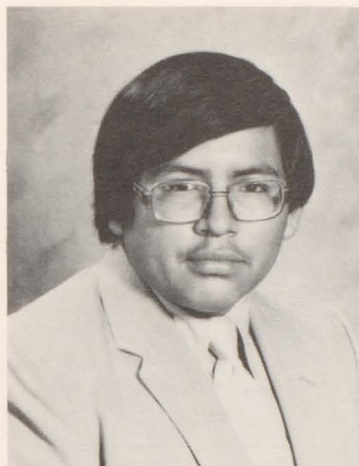

Many things were accomplished by the class, one of which was the successful concession stand, which raised approximately $1,600 to finance ditch day, class day, senior banquet and other activities. One of the main activities was the building of the Homecoming float, which took fifth place out of only four places.

The Senior Class play was "Flowers for Algernon", with seniors having first choice of parts and sponsored by Mr. Ron Harris. The profit from this play was approximately $250.00, which was a little less than usual.

The senior candidate for Miss Merry Christmas was Elaine Douthitt. This is a contest for collecting cans of food to be distributed by the Elk's club to needy people. The class came in second place, raising $208.91.

The senior class sponsors were Miss Dubuy, Miss Lancaster, Mr. Henling, Mr. Conatser, Mr. Cassidy, Mr. McArthur, Mr. Boles, Mrs. Roberts, and last but not least, Mrs. McAuley.

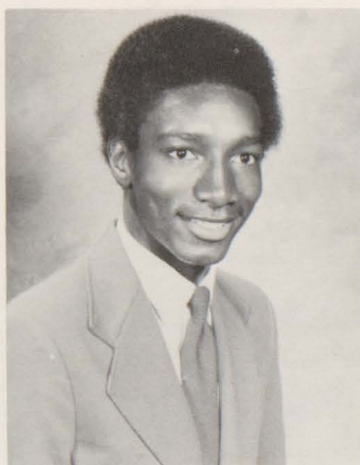

The senior class will be remembered by the great sign that was painted on the three water tanks at the city pool.

IN MEMORY OF

MR. AFTON SAWYER

The students of Winslow High School were saddened when the news came of Mr. Afton Sawyer's death, which occurred in November of 1973.

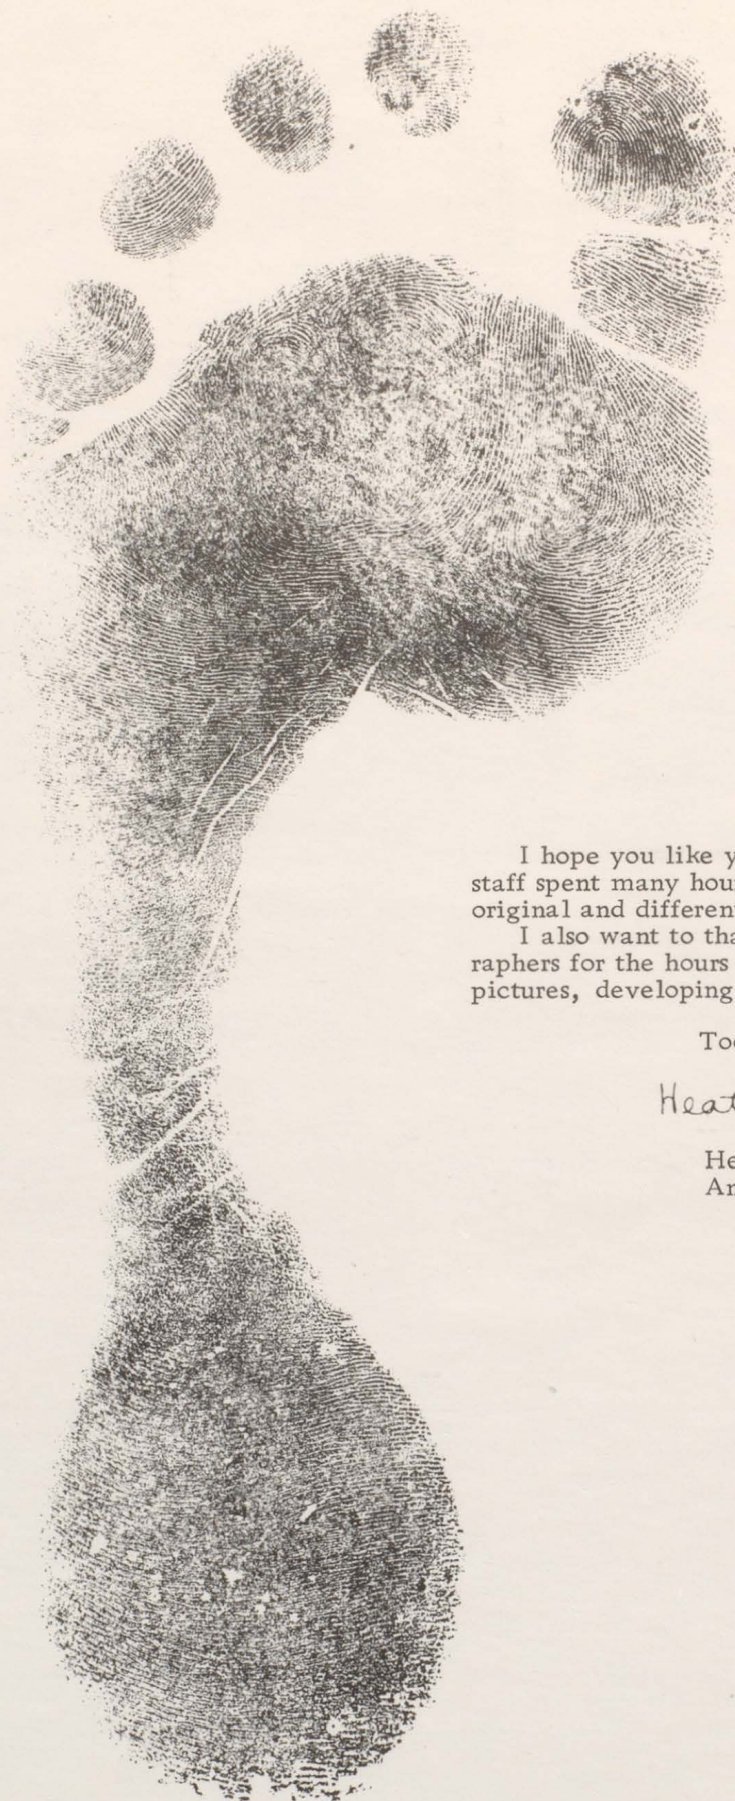

Mr. Sawyer was one of our maintenance men that had been at WHS for 12 years. He was a very conscientious man and one that did his job well. Always an extremely quiet man, it was difficult for the students to get to know him as well as we would have liked to.

He worked with five other men in the maintenance building, one of which is his son Leroy Sawyer. His devotion to his work was well known by these men and many others. We will miss Mr. Sawyer and his quiet ways.

And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints in the sands of time.

I hope you like your annual. The staff spent many hours making it as original and different as possible.

I also want to thank the photographers for the hours they put in taking pictures, developing and printing.

Toot-a-loo,

Heather Morris
